Re: U.S. v. Reese, 92 CR-1001 (RR)

Dear Judge Raggi:

In April of 2000, a friend of mine named Shakira Williams wrote to Your Honor concerning my then-pending sentence. In the letter she advised you about a number of 911 calls I had placed which subsequently resulted in threats to my life.

The letter does not appear on the docket, and I'm writing to ask if you have any recollection of the letter.

Any assistance that you might be able to provide will be greatly appreciated. Your indulgence in this matter is also greatly appreciated.

Very Truly Yours,
